DISTRICT 2 LISTENING SESSIONS ON 2012 RECOMMENDED BUDGET Evening meetings at three locations across County allow for community input

Milwaukee, WI – Milwaukee County Supervisor Nikiya Q. Harris has announced a series of listening sessions this month to hear comments from District 2 residents about the recommended 2012 Milwaukee County Budget.

“With the 2012 budget being one of the most difficult budgets we have seen in recent years, it is imperative that we pay close attention to where the County Executive has placed Milwaukee County’s priorities. I look forward to talking to the residents of my district to hear their concerns about the 2012 Recommended Budget,” says Supervisor Harris.

The first session is scheduled for Tuesday, October 4 at the Silver Spring Neighborhood Center from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. Subsequent hearings are scheduled at the Parklawn YMCA and Christ the King Church in Milwaukee. See the schedule below for details:
